Dear Josh:

My warmest congratulations on the news of your appointment to the Presidency of the Rockefeller University. Or, at least, I ought to congratulate Rockefeller for the wisdom of their choice. You'll have to tell me after some time in the new position whether it merits congratulations or condolences.

I had known it was in the offing from a discussion I had with Dave some weeks back and we both hoped that the shiddach would be concluded.

Anyway, all the very best.

Yours sincerely,

Leon

Leon - Thank you.
It won't be long if I can get your help in finishing things I want to do with basic science to the point of useful health applications.
I know you profoundly agree about this. Hoping to see more from you.
Joshua.
